

THE EVENING BULLETIN

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1885.

SMALL-POX is epidemic at Montreal.

MAGOFFIN County has twelve murder trials on hand.

CHOLERA is reported to have appeared at Marseilles, France.

STATISTICS show that Southern prisons contain 12,000 convicts.

REPRESENTATIVE McCRARY has returned to Kentucky from Washington.

APPLICANTS for the position of Post-office Inspectors will be examined at Washington June 17.

GENERAL GRANT is suffering with rheumatism, caused by stormy weather. His physicians are anxious to get him out of the city.

It is reported that Mr. Arthur F. Dohneys will be appointed a storekeeper in the Revenue service under Collector Robinson.

An order has been issued by Commissioner Miller directing revenue collectors to quit using hand stamps in signing official documents.

The report of Adjutant General Drum shows that there were 2,772,498 Federal soldiers in the army during the late war, and 359,490 dead.

BORROWED sent in one day, to General Robinson, ninety-one applications for the office of storekeeper. Life is rapidly becoming a burden to him.

The Munday murder case at Lexington ended by the jury failing to agree. Five were for acquittal, four for life imprisonment and three for hanging.

The resignation of the Gladstone ministry was hailed with joy by the Irish members of parliament and is expected to bring about a better state of things in that distressed land.

EX-SATE SENATOR JAMES A. MUNDAY, of Owensboro, is said to have a first-class chance for an appointment as Inspector of Indian Agencies. The place will be filled at an early day.

The Yeoman says: "Beecher's son, his name is not of consequence—has been appointed Collector of Port Townsend, Oregon. This is all right. But if Burchard has a son, for the sake of all that is grateful and just, make him Collector of the Port of New York."

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS McLean says that it is the purpose of the Pension Bureau to make a thorough examination of the pension list of the entire country, with a view to cutting off all who are illegally drawing pensions. He thinks it beyond doubt that many persons in all the States are drawing pensions illegally, and it is the "dependent" list which contains the number of fraudulent cases.

The bitter feeling against Mr. Beck in this city and county is on account of his contemptuous disregard of the wishes of the Democracy as a body and his horrid treatment of representatives of the party who visited him at Washington. The Democrats asked of him nothing further than that a candidate might be named who would be acceptable to the party and to the people generally; but this request, which the Democracy had the right to expect should be respectfully regarded, was set aside with the curt reply that "he had heard enough about the matter and desired to hear nothing more." It was made perfectly clear that no Democrat, whatever his standing in the party might be, could get a hearing from him, and this arbitrary and contemptuous treatment of the men who helped to place him where he is, has what has aroused the indignation and bitter feeling that now exists.

New Postal Laws.

On the first of July letters of all weights, from one ounce down, will be sent for two cents to any postoffice in the United States. The rate heretofore has been two cents for half an ounce or less.

Rates for weights in excess of one ounce will be correspondingly greater; that is, two cents for each additional ounce or fraction of an ounce.

Drop letters at offices where there is no free delivery by carriers, remain at one cent; where the free delivery system by carriers prevails the rate will be two cents. Newspaper publishers and news agents can mail publications, printed periodically, at the rate of one cent per pound, when sent to regular subscribers.

Newspaper publishers can also send sample copies of their publications at one cent a pound, but not more than one cent. An article or item in a newspaper or other periodical may be marked to attract notice by the sender, but it must not be written or printed words. Newspapers and periodicals go free of postage to regular subscribers who receive them at the post-offices in the county of publication.

WILEY'S WILY CAPTIVE.

The Trick a Swindler Played on a Pinkerton Detective.

CHICAGO, June 10.—J. C. Calvert was arrested in New York last week, for passing a forged check. He had left Chicago to do this before he came to New York with a bandit named George Blais. While in this city he lived like a prince, and swindled Wolfe P. Potter, with whom he boarded at 834 Warren avenue, out of $150 on a worthless check, and Mrs. & Mr. G. L. Johnson on West 10th street, out of $75 by the same method. Detective Wiley, of the city force, was sent to New York to bring Calvert back. They started on the return trip at 6 o'clock in the evening, and were soon followed by a swindler. Wiley took a break during the night, and about 10 o'clock Sunday morning fell into a heavy drunken stupor. Calvert snatched both railroad tickets from Wiley, and got on a train at a way station in Ohio. After passing Toledo, the conductor partially aroused Wiley. He had no ticket and the conductor took his value to pay for his passage.

Calvert had been arrested near Sandusky in response to Wiley's telegram in all directions. Wiley will arrive soon with the prisoner. The chief of the detectives here does not believe he was drugged, but says perhaps he was drawn after a day of hard work and fell asleep.

PERVERSITY.

Juror Shaw's Case goes to the Jury—His Own Testimony.

CINCINNATI, June 10.—Shaw, upon the witness stand in his own behalf, in his trial for perjury, said that he had been examined as an expert witness, and that he had no objection to his being called as a witness before the Berner trial, but he did not now remember positively that he did so, nor what his opinion was if he had any. Prosecutor Fugh attempted to question Shaw about the time when he was examined, and asked him if he showed up its corruption and infamy, but Judge Huston decided that as the Berner trial occurred after the alleged perjury charged in this case, it did not appear to be relevant.

Shaw's recollection seemed to be remarkable when he was questioned about what he read, thought or said about the Kirk murder before the Berner trial. Shaw was asked if he was willing to give his testimony for instructing the jury in arguing the case. Prosecutor Fugh says he has made out a case against Shaw. The progress of the case has been so frequently interrupted that it has now taken three weeks of the court's time.

TEXAS JEWELRY.

Two Cattle Thieves and Murderers Strung Up by a Mob.

GALVESTON, Tex., June 10.—A. Borham, Tex., dispatch says: "About 3 o'clock a masked mob of 100 men aroused the jailor and demanded the keys of the jail. The spokesman of the party received the keys and proceeded to the cells occupied by the murderer of Sheriff Dyer, charged with the murder of Sheriff Rector, and Deputy Sheriff Buchanan, on the 6th inst. The prisoners were brought out, and the mob carried them a hundred yards from the jail and hanged them to oak trees. After daylight the bodies were found dangling, with their feet still touching the ground. Death came from strangulation. Ellis confessed his guilt several days ago, but would make no dying statement.

Borham begged for his life, but belonged to a gang of cattle thieves that had been impeding in this section for a long time. The sheriff lost their lives in arresting the desperadoes.

ONE HUNDRED LIVES LOST.

A Sweeping Torrent Masses a Swath of Desolation and Death.

GALVESTON, Tex., June 10.—A special to the News from El Paso says: "A water burst in the mountains, about eight leagues east of Lagos, Mex., near the dividing line between Coahuila and Chihuahua.

The effects were most stupendous. Innumerable streams of water swept down the mountains with irresistible force toward the well populated plains and valleys below, and often completely ran their wake.

There are about 100 lives reported lost, still larger when all the details are known. A great many houses were swept away. Steps have been taken to alleviate the pressing wants of those who escaped from the valleys, but lost everything."

DEED OF DASTARDS.

The Strike at Bayview Blow Up a Mine With Dynamite.

QUINCY, Ill., June 10.—The strike of the miners in the coal fields of Illinois has turned into disaster. The mine of Locust & Shively was blown up with dynamite, causing great damage to the underground passages, which were destroyed and the supports torn away.

The mine was taken over by the company introduced into the body of the mine by means of an outer shaft. The mine was some time ago enclosed with a high pallisade, and colored men have been on guard all the time to prevent the miners from approaching the scene of the dastardly deed, and it has thus far been impossible to make a thorough investigation of the mine to estimate the danger. The miners were not at work at the time of the explosion.

AN OIL CRAZE.

A "Mystery" Streak With Others to Follow in Ohio.

BELLAIRE, O., June 10.—It has leaked through the filling of nearly one hundred and leases at St. Cleaveland, that a big oil strike was made at the Armstrong mills well off miles south of this city, about a week ago.

The well was said to have flowed heavily, but was at once plugged up, the derrick boarded up and the place to all appearance disappeared. The price of oil at once began to leave the land market, and it at once began to fall.

The Bethel well is also reported to be in the sand and flowing. There is great excitement in the neighborhood, and another oil may be looked for.

The Boston Beauty.

CHICAGO, June 10.—There is much interest in the meeting between Jack Burke and John L. Sullivan, which is to be held Saturday, at the driving park. Burke continues in first-class condition, and says he is bigger and stronger and in better form than ever before. "Pants" Deacon, Sullivan's manager, says that they would leave Boston immediately and arrive here very soon.

RAISED UP BY PRAYERS

A LADY PRONOUNCED INCURABLE RESTORED TO HEALTH.

After Being Anointed and Joining herself in Perfect Physical Condition. Her Extraordinary Story.

ORANGE, N. J., June 10.—The residents of South Orange were greatly exercised on learning that Mrs. Alfred E. Watkins, a resident of the village, had been declared incurable for two years, had been suddenly cured and had attended the Presbyterian church in the village. She met with an accident years ago and sustained internal injuries which had been declared incurable.

To a reporter she said: "For many years I had been ill and three years ago, came along a great disengagement, and terrible humorico. Excellent physicians tried in vain to cure me. I swallowed gallons of medicine, but all to no effect. At last I was unable to move from my couch. I had abandoned all hope of cure. Last Sunday I was in agony all day."

"I thought of the Rev. Mr. Heller, of Newark. Mr. Heller wrote to him and Mr. Heller called to see me. That night he died.

I told him if I believed God's promises and in the Bible, I said I did.

He referred to a passage in St. James which says that if we had faith the sowers and receivers of the oil, could heal the sick.

I told him I had faith in the promises of the Bible. He then anointed my head with oil and knelled and prayed with me. I joined in the invocation for relief.

He then left, but I suddenly began when I felt a strange stirring. Praying began to hit up. I prayed fervently, and presently arose from my couch, and to my great joy felt perfectly cured.

"I have not had a pain nor an ache since.

I never felt as well physically. I feel spiritually regenerated. You can believe me in this when I say that I am not laboring under any delusion. My health has been restored by an animal magnetism, but solely by the power of God. For two years I have not left my room. Now I am able to go out and walk anywhere. It is all due this wonderful, divine, spiritual treatment, to faith and prayer. By all means, tell this abroad, and let the glory be the Lord's."

Mrs. Watkins is about five-and-a-half years of age, tall and slender, with dark, expressive eyes, and a frank, open expression. She told her extraordinary story. Spared of high socialability and her neighbors, knowing her to be a lady of perfect credibility, place implicit reliance in all she says. The Rev. Mr. Heller was also seen by the reporter and he confirmed Mrs. Watkins' story.
